FRENCH FAMILY.

1. JOHN FRENCH¹, progenitor of the Family commemorated in this Memorial, was born in England about 1612; came to this country and resided for a short time in Dorehester. As early as 1640, Vinton supposes, he removed to Braintree; for in that year, Feb. 24, 1639—40, he had a grant from the town of Boston of forty acres of land in that place for five persons in his family.

His first wife was Grace ———, who was the mother of all his children. She died Feb. 1, 1680, a. 59. He survived until Aug. 6, 1692. Thayer's Memorial contains a full account of their descendants, and Vinton's Memorial, of those connected with the Vinton family, but neither of them mention his second marriage to Eleanor, widow of William Veazie, which occurred in 1683.

The marriage covenant agreed to between the parties is a curious relic of the "olden time," and was discovered among some old papers in the hands of one of the descendants of John French, and published in the Randolph Transcript of Feb. 13, 1858, from which it is here copied. It is in the handwriting of Samuel, son of Rev. William Tompson, and witnessed by him and his brother Benjamin Tompson, the far-famed poet, physician and schoolmaster of Braintree and Roxbury.

A MARRIAGE COVENANT.

"A covenant of marriage being proposed and intended between John French and Eleanor Veazie of Braintry in Newengland, made and concluded this eighth day of July Anno Domini one thousand six hundred eighty three, doe witness that the said John French doth pre-engage unto the said Eleanor Veazie not to meddle with, or take into his hand, any part of her estate, wherein shee is invested by her former husband William Veazie, or any otherwise; nor any wise weakening her right or claim to the same. The said John French doth hereby engage and covenant to pay to the said Eleanor Veazie after my decease four pounds per annum annually, to be paid each year immediately ensuing after the said John French's decease, by his lawful Administrators, Executors, or Assigns, at her dwelling house; the specie of which payment shall bee paid in cord wood, Porke, Beeffe, Malt or Corn proportionably of each at prices current. And that she the said Eleanor Veazie shall have, hold, possess and enjoy the New end of the dwelling house in which the said French now dwelleth with the cellar appertaining, during the time of her widowhood. But the four pound annuity to bee and continue to her and her heirs or assigns during the term of her Naturall life. To the true performance whereof the said John French doth hereunto set hand this eighth day of July Anno Domini, one thousand six hundred Eighty three. Of each, interlined line twelfth; hold and possess line 13th, a word defaced line 15, before signing.

And shee shall have apples what she please for spending, and a place for a garden plot.

Signed and concluded on before us

John French.

Samuel Tompson.

Ben. Tompson."

A petition to the Judge of Probate for a division of his estate among his heirs, of which a copy is here inserted shows the condition of his family at that time.

A PETITION.

"To the Hon. William Stoughton Esq. Judge of the probate of Wills and Testaments and granting Administrations &c.—The humble request of Jno. French and Dependence French Administrators to the estate of John French, late of Braintree deceased, their father.

Humbly sheweth, praying that your Honor will please to appoint Christopher Webb, John Baxter senior, Joseph Peniman senior, Samuel Peniman, Nathaniel Wales, or any three of them, to divide said estate, and set out to each person concerned their part and proportion, that so the estate may be preserved, which otherwise will be ruined and come to nothing; housing and fences decaying and running out of repairs, which, if every one knew their part, would be prevented.

—The persons concerned in said estate are John French the oldest son, Dependence French, Thomas French, Samuel French, William French, the orphan of William French deceased: two daughters, viz.: Temperance Bowditch wife of John Bowditch, Elizabeth Wheelock of Mendon, children of Mary Lamb deceased are Mary Poole, Alice Thayer by her first husband Poole, and John Lamb, Samuel Lamb, Margaret Lamb, Mary Lamb, Grace Lamb, Hannah Lamb, which, if your Honor shall please to grant will greatly oblige your humble servants."
